CREATIVE AGING SYMPOSIUM

Aging Re-imagined

DAY ONE

THURSDAY, MAY 14

Maria Genné

Introduction to Moving Well

3:00—5:00 p.m. @ IU Health Bloomington Hospital, Wegmiller Auditorium

Free. No pre-registration required. CEUs will be offered.

IU Health Bloomington will offer this two-hour interactive workshop, led by Maria Genné (founder and director of KAIROS Alive!) This workshop is designed to introduce healthcare professionals to the concept of Choreography of Care and offer some easy tools and techniques to increase individual and community well-being through creative engagement. Professionals in nursing, home health care, social work, memory care, and arts education are encouraged to attend.

Alive Inside: A Story of Music and Memory

7:00—9:00 p.m. (Doors open at 6:45 p.m.) @ Monroe County Public Library Auditorium

Free. No pre-registration required. Seating limited to 144.

This 2014 Sundance Film Festival Audience Award Winner film documents how social worker Dan Cohen, through his nonprofit organization, Music and Memory, advocates for the use of music therapy for dementia patients. A discussion will end the evening.

DAY TWO—The Symposium continues with a full day of workshops and presentations.

FRIDAY, MAY 15

The Art of Active Living

10:00 a.m.—4:00 p.m. Bloomington/Monroe County Convention Center, 302 S. College Avenue, Bloomington, Indiana

Admission: $10 at the door. No pre-registration required.

Keynote speaker Tim Carpenter will share thoughts about “The Art of Active Living”. Tim is the Founder and Executive Director of EngAGE and has been instrumental in the development of the Burbank Senior Artist Colony—a first-of-its-kind 141-unit senior apartment community that offers programs in the creative and performing arts as the core physical, social, and intellectual unifying amenity for residents. Designed for artists in their second 50 years of creativity, the community includes a theater, art studios, indoor/outdoor performance spaces, computer-media arts center, digital filmmaking lab, galleries, and sculpture garden.

RE-market

The RE-market will be open from 12:00—4:00 p.m. and 6:00—10:00 p.m. @ The Bloomington Monroe County Convention Center

In between sessions, visit Bloomington's first annual RE-market featuring recycled, repurposed, one-of-a-kind items, antiques, hand-painted furniture, vintage wearables, jewelry and more. If you are a junk gypsy who loves shabby chic, this market is for you! Sprinkled among the mix will also be vendors who specialize in helping YOU re-invent your life.

Artists, Makers, Antique Dealers, and Wellness/Life Coaches who would like to receive information about participating as a vendor should contact Mary Boutain at maryboutain@gmail.com.

Chuck Rainey

TIME TRAVELS: Soaring in the Second Act

7:30 p.m. @ the Bloomington/Monroe County Convention Center, 302 S. College Avenue, Bloomington, Indiana

$25 at the door. Advance tickets on sale at Buskirk-Chumley Theater Box office (114 E. Kirkwood Avenue, Bloomington IN).

This annual multi-generational celebration is hosted by Krista Detor, who will perform along with Chuck Rainey, Rod Taylor, Malcolm Abrams, Gladys DeVane, Ella Poletti, Storyzilla Storytellers, and other wonderful performers.

Proceeds benefit the Endwright Center, a program of Area 10 Agency on Aging.
